

Character Study: Elijah
Part 2 – Elijah Is Sent into the Wilderness
I Kings 17:2-7

What's happening?

- Elijah told King Ahab about the coming drought, but before Elijah could do anything else, God told him to leave that area and go hide by the Brook Cherith. (17:2-3)
- Elijah was to go to the brook alone, but God promised to meet his needs by sending ravens that would bring him food. (17:4)
- Elijah obeyed the Lord and went to the brook. The Lord provided Elijah's food just as He had said He would. In the morning and in the evening, the ravens brought Elijah bread and meat. Also, the brook gave Elijah great water that he could drink. (17:5-6)
- Once the drought began, it did not take long before the brook dried up and Elijah was without a water supply. Elijah was left having to trust God to keep His promise of providing the necessary provisions. (17:7)

What's God doing?

> Elijah had told King Ahab about the coming drought. Now the Lord took Elijah back out into the wilderness for his own protection and so that the Lord could use that time to mold him more fully into the man He wanted him to be.

What's to learn?

→ When we follow the Lord's leading in our lives, we can be confident that He will meet all of our needs. At times we will be amazed at the means in which God provides for us! Each need that is met only further confirms the fact that He can be trusted!

→ We must be willing to be molded by God just as much as we are willing to be used by God. With service, comes preparation. Preparation may not always be fun, but it is essential if we want to be ready for the task ahead.

→ We must learn to trust God one day at a time. Just like Elijah, we may not know exactly what God wants us to do tomorrow, but we can always do what He wants us to do today!
