

Teen Topics Media (Conclusion)

It is easy to get caught up in the culture and think that we cannot be influenced by the media. 1 Corinthians 10:12 says, “Let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall.” Even as believers, we must not think that we are beyond the influences of the media. As we wrap up our study, let us “take heed” and consider a few final thoughts.

Helpful Questions to Ask

Living in a culture where media quite often “crosses the line,” let’s consider these questions:

- What do our “entertainment” choices look like? Do we find our entertainment by taking in things that glorify worldliness and sin or things that honor God?
- What are we supporting by our entertainment choices? Are we spending our money and time on things that encourage sinful activities or godliness?
- Where is our focus being directed? Does the music we listen to, movies we watch, webpages we visit, (etc.) set our focus on the world or on Christ?
- What does God think about the media we choose to watch and listen to? What would be Jesus’ thoughts regarding the things you welcome into your life?

Just because media is impacting our culture does not mean that we have to allow it to impact us. Being “in” the culture, does not mean we have to be “of” the culture (John 15:19).

Making Wise Choices

1 Thessalonians 5:21-22 advises us to “test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil.” If we listen to this verse, rather than being influenced by the media, we can be influencing others for Christ. When it comes to deciding which types of media we welcome into our lives, may we recognize the seriousness of this decision!
