The Issue:

God has created each of us with abilities and talents, and has given us certain possessions that we enjoy. It is important to remember that each of these blessings, however, was given to us by God ultimately to serve His purpose. When we grasp this, we see the necessity to manage (or be “stewards”) of what we have! Let’s see what Scripture says about this.

What does the Bible say?

Note what these verses teach about our possessions:

- > Psalm 24:1-2 – All things are made by God and are His.
- > I Chron. 29:14 – Everything we have comes from God.

Note what God says about being a steward of His things:

- > I Cor. 4:1-2 – Stewards must be faithful and trustworthy.
- > Matt. 25:14-30 – We must use what God has given us wisely.
- > Col. 3:23-24 – Using God’s things for His purposes = reward.

Read the following verses to see some of the specific areas in which we are told to practice stewardship: I Pet. 4:10-11; I Cor. 6:19-20; II Cor. 9:6-7; and Eph. 5:15-16.

What should I do?

Stewardship is about using the resources God has entrusted to us to accomplish the purpose He has for them. Everything we have (from possessions to abilities) is a gift from God intended to serve a significant purpose. As we view the totality of our existence with a God-centered focus, we will discover that God desires to use our lives for His glory in more ways than we can imagine. How can you be a good steward of what God has given to you? May we be dedicated to using both our lives and our possessions for His glory!
