

World Religions and False Cults

Part 11 – The True Christ of Christianity

Separating True Christianity from the Cults

Among the false cults we have looked at, as well as any other cult, the two main issues that have resulted in their departure from historic Christianity are their view of Scripture and their view of Jesus Christ. Concerning Scripture, either they add to it, distort its meaning, or abandon it as an authority. Concerning Jesus Christ, they distort the clear biblical and historical teachings about His person and nature. True Christianity will always uphold Scripture and maintain a biblical view of Jesus Christ.

A Biblically Accurate View of Jesus Christ

Below are the key verses that can be used to teach and defend the Bible's teaching on the person and nature of Jesus Christ:

- The Trinity: There is one God (Deut. 6:4), existing in three persons, who are equally divine (the Father - John 6:27; Jesus Christ - John 1:1; the Holy Spirit - Acts 5:3-4). Jesus is one with the Father (John 10:30 - "one" = perfect unity in nature and actions; note v. 33), yet distinct (Matt. 3:16-17). Jesus is the "image of the invisible God" (Col. 1:15; 2:9).
- Jesus' Divinity: Jesus was involved in activities attributed only to God (creation - Is. 42:5; John 1:3; forgiving sin - Mark 2:5-12; etc.), was prophesied to be the coming "Mighty God" before His birth (Is. 9:6), was recognized and worshiped as being God (John 20:28; Matt. 14:33), and He Himself claimed to be God (John 8:58, with Ex. 3:14).
- A Perfect Savior: Jesus took on flesh (humanity) and lived a sinless life (II Cor. 5:21). He alone was worthy to take upon Himself the sin of mankind (I Pet. 3:18). His death, burial and resurrection accomplishing what no other person could do, providing forgiveness and salvation to those who place their trust in Him (Rom. 3:23; 5:8; 6:23; John 3:16; 14:6).

Holding to the Truth of Christianity

Twisting Scripture and distorting the person and nature of Jesus Christ is nothing new (II Pet. 2:1; 3:14-18). However, what God has revealed in His Word stands true. As Christians, we must be able to recognize error, defend against false teaching, and take a stand for truth (Eph. 4:11-15). Sharing the truth of Jesus Christ and the life changing news of the gospel is one of the greatest privileges and honors that we have as His followers!
