

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 12 – Growing Through Obedience

Session Recap

Philippians 3:1-11 – Paul celebrates a clear pattern in the lives of the Philippians: a _____ to grow, then a _____ that is evident, leading to a _____ for God’s glory.

Two points of encouragement as you consider how to apply passages to your life:

- _____ the Lord’s _____ – Simply apply the passage as the Lord directs.
 - _____ what you _____ – Take note of what you learn as you apply Scripture so you can see your growth and recognize what God is teaching you along the way.
- It’s good for us to recognized what God is doing in our lives and _____ that we are part of something bigger than ourselves and give God glory for it.

Devotional: II Corinthians 15:58 – If we’re willing to be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, then our _____ can tremendously influence others to _____ out their _____ as well. Let’s commit to being people of _____ as we listen to God and apply what we’re learning.

Reflection

1. How can your devotional time become a time of worship as you consider what God is doing in your life as you apply what you are learning?
2. Living out your faith can have a bigger impact than you may ever realize. How might God use your obedience to influence others?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 12 – Growing Through Obedience

Session Recap

Philippians 3:1-11 – Paul celebrates a clear pattern in the lives of the Philippians: a _____ to grow, then a _____ that is evident, leading to a _____ for God’s glory.

Two points of encouragement as you consider how to apply passages to your life:

- _____ the Lord’s _____ – Simply apply the passage as the Lord directs.
 - _____ what you _____ – Take note of what you learn as you apply Scripture so you can see your growth and recognize what God is teaching you along the way.
- It’s good for us to recognized what God is doing in our lives and _____ that we are part of something bigger than ourselves and give God glory for it.

Devotional: II Corinthians 15:58 – If we’re willing to be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, then our _____ can tremendously influence others to _____ out their _____ as well. Let’s commit to being people of _____ as we listen to God and apply what we’re learning.

Reflection

1. How can your devotional time become a time of worship as you consider what God is doing in your life as you apply what you are learning?
2. Living out your faith can have a bigger impact than you may ever realize. How might God use your obedience to influence others?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 12 – Growing Through Obedience

Session Recap

Philippians 3:1-11 – Paul celebrates a clear pattern in the lives of the Philippians: a commitment to grow, then a change that is evident, leading to a transformation for God’s glory.

Two points of encouragement as you consider how to apply passages to your life:

- Follow the Lord’s leading – Simply apply the passage as the Lord directs.
- Track what you learn – Take note of what you learn as you apply Scripture so you can see your growth and recognize what God is teaching you along the way.

→ It’s good for us to recognize what God is doing in our lives and celebrate that we are part of something bigger than ourselves and give God glory for it.

Devotional: II Corinthians 15:58 – If we’re willing to be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, then our actions can tremendously influence others to live out their faith as well. Let’s commit to being people of influence as we listen to God and apply what we’re learning.

Reflection

1. How can your devotional time become a time of worship as you consider what God is doing in your life as you apply what you are learning?
2. Living out your faith can have a bigger impact than you may ever realize. How might God use your obedience to influence others?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 12 – Growing Through Obedience

Session Recap

Philippians 3:1-11 – Paul celebrates a clear pattern in the lives of the Philippians: a commitment to grow, then a change that is evident, leading to a transformation for God’s glory.

Two points of encouragement as you consider how to apply passages to your life:

- Follow the Lord’s leading – Simply apply the passage as the Lord directs.
- Track what you learn – Take note of what you learn as you apply Scripture so you can see your growth and recognize what God is teaching you along the way.

→ It’s good for us to recognize what God is doing in our lives and celebrate that we are part of something bigger than ourselves and give God glory for it.

Devotional: II Corinthians 15:58 – If we’re willing to be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, then our actions can tremendously influence others to live out their faith as well. Let’s commit to being people of influence as we listen to God and apply what we’re learning.

Reflection

1. How can your devotional time become a time of worship as you consider what God is doing in your life as you apply what you are learning?
2. Living out your faith can have a bigger impact than you may ever realize. How might God use your obedience to influence others?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?