

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 14 – Encouragement for Your Devotional Journey

Session Recap

God's Word is God's Message for You — Let that drive your devotional time and let that _____ you as you read.

- Understand the Meaning — The principles of interpretation will help you study your Bible. For additional help, talk to a pastor, use a commentary or refer to other helpful _____.
- Remember the Message — Be sure to make your devotional times _____. The strategies given will help you interact with the passage and add _____ to your devotions.
- Apply the Principles — Application will bring the text to _____ as you live it out. It will put you on a mission that will _____ you and the people around you.

Romans 12:1-2 – Your devotional time can be a daily preparation for living a life of _____ and a catalyst for continual _____.

It's time to develop a strategy — Review and finalize your thoughts from this course and establish a devotional plan moving forward.

Devotional: Psalm 1 – God doesn't call us to be average; God calls us to be _____. Delight in God's law and it will yield a lifetime of _____!

Reflection

1. Consider what it will take for you to remain committed and consistent in your devotional time. How will your devotional strategy encourage and contribute to this?
2. What do you anticipate to be the greatest blessing from getting into God's Word in a meaningful and consistent way? What particular skill(s) discussed in this course will bring that about?

Closing Prayer: Pray that God will not only guide you in creating a devotional strategy from what you've learned in this study, but that He'll also help you carry out your plan on a consistent basis moving forward. Ask God to give you the encouragement and discipline you need to experience all the blessings that come from growing in your walk with the Lord.

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 14 – Encouragement for Your Devotional Journey

Session Recap

God's Word is God's Message for You — Let that drive your devotional time and let that _____ you as you read.

- Understand the Meaning — The principles of interpretation will help you study your Bible. For additional help, talk to a pastor, use a commentary or refer to other helpful _____.
- Remember the Message — Be sure to make your devotional times _____. The strategies given will help you interact with the passage and add _____ to your devotions.
- Apply the Principles — Application will bring the text to _____ as you live it out. It will put you on a mission that will _____ you and the people around you.

Romans 12:1-2 – Your devotional time can be a daily preparation for living a life of _____ and a catalyst for continual _____.

It's time to develop a strategy — Review and finalize your thoughts from this course and establish a devotional plan moving forward.

Devotional: Psalm 1 – God doesn't call us to be average; God calls us to be _____. Delight in God's law and it will yield a lifetime of _____!

Reflection

1. Consider what it will take for you to remain committed and consistent in your devotional time. How will your devotional strategy encourage and contribute to this?
2. What do you anticipate to be the greatest blessing from getting into God's Word in a meaningful and consistent way? What particular skill(s) discussed in this course will bring that about?

Closing Prayer: Pray that God will not only guide you in creating a devotional strategy from what you've learned in this study, but that He'll also help you carry out your plan on a consistent basis moving forward. Ask God to give you the encouragement and discipline you need to experience all the blessings that come from growing in your walk with the Lord.

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 14 – Encouragement for Your Devotional Journey

Session Recap

God's Word is God's Message for You — Let that drive your devotional time and let that motivate you as you read.

- Understand the Meaning — The principles of interpretation will help you study your Bible. For additional help, talk to a pastor, use a commentary or refer to other helpful resources.
- Remember the Message — Be sure to make your devotional times engaging. The strategies given will help you interact with the passage and add purpose to your devotions.
- Apply the Principles — Application will bring the text to life as you live it out. It will put you on a mission that will change you and the people around you.

Romans 12:1-2 – Your devotional time can be a daily preparation for living a life of worship and a catalyst for continual growth.

It's time to develop a strategy — Review and finalize your thoughts from this course and establish a devotional plan moving forward.

Devotional: Psalm 1 – God doesn't call us to be average; God calls us to be blessed. Delight in God's law and it will yield a lifetime of blessing!

Reflection

1. Consider what it will take for you to remain committed and consistent in your devotional time. How will your devotional strategy encourage and contribute to this?
2. What do you anticipate to be the greatest blessing from getting into God's Word in a meaningful and consistent way? What particular skill(s) discussed in this course will bring that about?

Closing Prayer: Pray that God will not only guide you in creating a devotional strategy from what you've learned in this study, but that He'll also help you carry out your plan on a consistent basis moving forward. Ask God to give you the encouragement and discipline you need to experience all the blessings that come from growing in your walk with the Lord.

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 14 – Encouragement for Your Devotional Journey

Session Recap

God's Word is God's Message for You — Let that drive your devotional time and let that motivate you as you read.

- Understand the Meaning — The principles of interpretation will help you study your Bible. For additional help, talk to a pastor, use a commentary or refer to other helpful resources.
- Remember the Message — Be sure to make your devotional times engaging. The strategies given will help you interact with the passage and add purpose to your devotions.
- Apply the Principles — Application will bring the text to life as you live it out. It will put you on a mission that will change you and the people around you.

Romans 12:1-2 – Your devotional time can be a daily preparation for living a life of worship and a catalyst for continual growth.

It's time to develop a strategy — Review and finalize your thoughts from this course and establish a devotional plan moving forward.

Devotional: Psalm 1 – God doesn't call us to be average; God calls us to be blessed. Delight in God's law and it will yield a lifetime of blessing!

Reflection

1. Consider what it will take for you to remain committed and consistent in your devotional time. How will your devotional strategy encourage and contribute to this?
2. What do you anticipate to be the greatest blessing from getting into God's Word in a meaningful and consistent way? What particular skill(s) discussed in this course will bring that about?

Closing Prayer: Pray that God will not only guide you in creating a devotional strategy from what you've learned in this study, but that He'll also help you carry out your plan on a consistent basis moving forward. Ask God to give you the encouragement and discipline you need to experience all the blessings that come from growing in your walk with the Lord.