

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 4 – Foundations of Biblical Interpretation

Session Recap (New Module: Understanding the Meaning)

Truths to keep in mind regarding biblical interpretation:

1. The Bible is not intended to be _____. (Col. 3:16)
 2. The Bible can _____ for _____. (see II Pet. 1:20-21)
 3. We can lean on the _____. (John 16:13a)
- The main thing: _____ – Ask God for understanding.

Brief overview of the categories of the Bible:

- _____ – Creation, call of Abraham, the Law
- _____ – Entering the Promised Land, line of kings
- _____ – Focus on giving wisdom to live by
- _____ – Encouragement to obey and warnings
- _____ – Life and ministry of Jesus, cross, salvation
- _____ – Spread of the gospel, growth of the church
- _____ – Christian living, doctrinal/practical topics
- _____ – Return of Christ, new heaven and earth

Devotional: Acts 17:10-12 – We need to be students of the Word who _____ truth in order to understand our world correctly.

Reflection

1. Which of the following truths do you find most encouraging – and why? The Bible is not intended to be complicated. The Bible can speak for itself. We can lean on the Holy Spirit.
2. How should the reality that God is helping you understand His Word give you confidence every time you open your Bible?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 4 – Foundations of Biblical Interpretation

Session Recap (New Module: Understanding the Meaning)

Truths to keep in mind regarding biblical interpretation:

1. The Bible is not intended to be _____. (Col. 3:16)
 2. The Bible can _____ for _____. (see II Pet. 1:20-21)
 3. We can lean on the _____. (John 16:13a)
- The main thing: _____ – Ask God for understanding.

Brief overview of the categories of the Bible:

- _____ – Creation, call of Abraham, the Law
- _____ – Entering the Promised Land, line of kings
- _____ – Focus on giving wisdom to live by
- _____ – Encouragement to obey and warnings
- _____ – Life and ministry of Jesus, cross, salvation
- _____ – Spread of the gospel, growth of the church
- _____ – Christian living, doctrinal/practical topics
- _____ – Return of Christ, new heaven and earth

Devotional: Acts 17:10-12 – We need to be students of the Word who _____ truth in order to understand our world correctly.

Reflection

1. Which of the following truths do you find most encouraging – and why? The Bible is not intended to be complicated. The Bible can speak for itself. We can lean on the Holy Spirit.
2. How should the reality that God is helping you understand His Word give you confidence every time you open your Bible?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 4 – Foundations of Biblical Interpretation

Session Recap (New Module: Understanding the Meaning)

Truths to keep in mind regarding biblical interpretation:

1. The Bible is not intended to be complicated. (Col. 3:16)
 2. The Bible can speak for itself. (see II Pet. 1:20-21)
 3. We can lean on the Holy Spirit. (John 16:13a)
- The main thing: prayer – Ask God for understanding.

Brief overview of the categories of the Bible:

- Pentateuch – Creation, call of Abraham, the Law
- History – Entering the Promised Land, line of kings
- Poetry – Focus on giving wisdom to live by
- Prophets – Encouragement to obey and warnings
- Gospels – Life and ministry of Jesus, cross, salvation
- Acts – Spread of the gospel, growth of the church
- Letters – Christian living, doctrinal/practical topics
- Revelation – Return of Christ, new heaven and earth

Devotional: Acts 17:10-12 – We need to be students of the Word who discern truth in order to understand our world correctly.

Reflection

1. Which of the following truths do you find most encouraging – and why? The Bible is not intended to be complicated. The Bible can speak for itself. We can lean on the Holy Spirit.
2. How should the reality that God is helping you understand His Word give you confidence every time you open your Bible?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 4 – Foundations of Biblical Interpretation

Session Recap (New Module: Understanding the Meaning)

Truths to keep in mind regarding biblical interpretation:

1. The Bible is not intended to be complicated. (Col. 3:16)
 2. The Bible can speak for itself. (see II Pet. 1:20-21)
 3. We can lean on the Holy Spirit. (John 16:13a)
- The main thing: prayer – Ask God for understanding.

Brief overview of the categories of the Bible:

- Pentateuch – Creation, call of Abraham, the Law
- History – Entering the Promised Land, line of kings
- Poetry – Focus on giving wisdom to live by
- Prophets – Encouragement to obey and warnings
- Gospels – Life and ministry of Jesus, cross, salvation
- Acts – Spread of the gospel, growth of the church
- Letters – Christian living, doctrinal/practical topics
- Revelation – Return of Christ, new heaven and earth

Devotional: Acts 17:10-12 – We need to be students of the Word who discern truth in order to understand our world correctly.

Reflection

1. Which of the following truths do you find most encouraging – and why? The Bible is not intended to be complicated. The Bible can speak for itself. We can lean on the Holy Spirit.
2. How should the reality that God is helping you understand His Word give you confidence every time you open your Bible?
3. What is one insight or takeaway from this session that you want to remember?