

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 7 – Study to Remember

Session Recap (New Module: Remembering the Message)

Benefits to remembering what you read:

- Personal _____
- Greater _____
- Biblical _____

The importance of remembering Scripture is seen through:

1. A _____ - the work of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26)
2. A _____ - to meditate on Scripture (Joshua 1:8)

→ As we internalize God's Word through study and meditation, the Holy Spirit brings it to _____ when we _____ it.

Making an effort to remember what we read is an investment that allows us to _____ from our Bible study on into the future.

Strategies to help us remember:

Strategy #1 – Create a _____ for the _____

- Action: Create a brief statement that reflects the main idea of the passage. Write it in your own words (3-8 words).
- Outcome: Provides titles summarizing what the book is about. Helpful for remembering the main themes of the book.

Strategy #2 – Write a _____

- Action: Create a 2-5 sentence summary of the chapter.
- Outcome: Provides a concise chapter by chapter summary of the entire book. Allows quick reference to review the entire book.

Devotional: Job 42:1-3 – We may never understand why certain things happen in life, but it's okay because God is still in _____.

Reflection

1. Why is it important to recognize both the role of the Holy Spirit bringing Scripture to our mind as well as our responsibility to meditate on it?
2. Consider strategies #1 and #2 – How could each of these be helpful if you adopted them into your Bible study time? Which do you feel would be the most doable and beneficial for you?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 7 – Study to Remember

Session Recap (New Module: Remembering the Message)

Benefits to remembering what you read:

- Personal _____
- Greater _____
- Biblical _____

The importance of remembering Scripture is seen through:

1. A _____ - the work of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26)
2. A _____ - to meditate on Scripture (Joshua 1:8)

→ As we internalize God's Word through study and meditation, the Holy Spirit brings it to _____ when we _____ it.

Making an effort to remember what we read is an investment that allows us to _____ from our Bible study on into the future.

Strategies to help us remember:

Strategy #1 – Create a _____ for the _____

- Action: Create a brief statement that reflects the main idea of the passage. Write it in your own words (3-8 words).
- Outcome: Provides titles summarizing what the book is about. Helpful for remembering the main themes of the book.

Strategy #2 – Write a _____

- Action: Create a 2-5 sentence summary of the chapter.
- Outcome: Provides a concise chapter by chapter summary of the entire book. Allows quick reference to review the entire book.

Devotional: Job 42:1-3 – We may never understand why certain things happen in life, but it's okay because God is still in _____.

Reflection

1. Why is it important to recognize both the role of the Holy Spirit bringing Scripture to our mind as well as our responsibility to meditate on it?
2. Consider strategies #1 and #2 – How could each of these be helpful if you adopted them into your Bible study time? Which do you feel would be the most doable and beneficial for you?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 7 – Study to Remember

Session Recap (New Module: Remembering the Message)

Benefits to remembering what you read:

- Personal Growth
- Greater Discernment
- Biblical Literacy

The importance of remembering Scripture is seen through:

1. A Promise – the work of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26)
2. A Command – to meditate on Scripture (Joshua 1:8)

→ As we internalize God's Word through study and meditation, the Holy Spirit brings it to mind when we need it.

Making an effort to remember what we read is an investment that allows us to benefit from our Bible study on into the future.

Strategies to help us remember:

Strategy #1 – Create a Title for the Passage

- Action: Create a brief statement that reflects the main idea of the passage. Write it in your own words (3-8 words).
- Outcome: Provides titles summarizing what the book is about. Helpful for remembering the main themes of the book.

Strategy #2 – Write a Short Summary

- Action: Create a 2-5 sentence summary of the chapter.
- Outcome: Provides a concise chapter by chapter summary of the entire book. Allows quick reference to review the entire book.

Devotional: Job 42:1-3 – We may never understand why certain things happen in life, but it's okay because God is still in control.

Reflection

1. Why is it important to recognize both the role of the Holy Spirit bringing Scripture to our mind as well as our responsibility to meditate on it?
2. Consider strategies #1 and #2 – How could each of these be helpful if you adopted them into your Bible study time? Which do you feel would be the most doable and beneficial for you?

Revitalize Your Daily Devotions

Session 7 – Study to Remember

Session Recap (New Module: Remembering the Message)

Benefits to remembering what you read:

- Personal Growth
- Greater Discernment
- Biblical Literacy

The importance of remembering Scripture is seen through:

1. A Promise – the work of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26)
2. A Command – to meditate on Scripture (Joshua 1:8)

→ As we internalize God's Word through study and meditation, the Holy Spirit brings it to mind when we need it.

Making an effort to remember what we read is an investment that allows us to benefit from our Bible study on into the future.

Strategies to help us remember:

Strategy #1 – Create a Title for the Passage

- Action: Create a brief statement that reflects the main idea of the passage. Write it in your own words (3-8 words).
- Outcome: Provides titles summarizing what the book is about. Helpful for remembering the main themes of the book.

Strategy #2 – Write a Short Summary

- Action: Create a 2-5 sentence summary of the chapter.
- Outcome: Provides a concise chapter by chapter summary of the entire book. Allows quick reference to review the entire book.

Devotional: Job 42:1-3 – We may never understand why certain things happen in life, but it's okay because God is still in control.

Reflection

1. Why is it important to recognize both the role of the Holy Spirit bringing Scripture to our mind as well as our responsibility to meditate on it?
2. Consider strategies #1 and #2 – How could each of these be helpful if you adopted them into your Bible study time? Which do you feel would be the most doable and beneficial for you?